

SUNRISE MULTISPECIALTY HOSPITAL

Orthopedic Consultation Record

Patient: Daniel Carter MRN: MRN-202600145

DOB: 14-May-1974 Age: 52 Gender: Male

Insurance: Synthetic Health Plan A

Chief Complaint

Persistent right knee pain for 8 weeks after twisting injury.

History of Present Illness

Pain score 7/10 with swelling, locking, difficulty climbing stairs and squatting despite medication, physical therapy and activity modification.

Physical Examination

Moderate tenderness over medial joint line, mild swelling, flexion limited to 105°, McMurray positive.

Functional Impairment

Difficulty walking, climbing stairs, prolonged standing and warehouse duties.

Previous Treatment

Ibuprofen 35 days, Physical Therapy 6 weeks, Activity Modification 40 days.

X-Ray

No fracture or dislocation. Mild medial compartment joint-space narrowing.

Diagnosis

ICD-10: M25.561 – Pain in Right Knee

Requested Service

MRI Right Knee without Contrast

CPT: 73721

Provider: Orthopedics

Facility: Imaging Center

Quantity: 1 Study

Physician Certification

MRI medically necessary due to persistent symptoms after >30 days conservative management.

Dr. Michael Johnson, MD

Orthopedic Surgery